Attention Cheryl Vermaelen:

Supp
2/6
10/67

I spoke to you January 17th, 2009 about a surplus for the election of 10/20/07. You were suppose to send me copies of the reports that were turned in so I could see what you were talking about. As of this date 02/05/09, I haven't received anything. The surplus is suppose to be $1089.06. We had no surplus. I remember sending the last report in with a zero balance, but I can't prove it because we lost all the paper work for Hurricane Ike. You told me to send you a note saying what the money was spent on, so this is the reason for this letter.

09C0923

We had an election party and the $1089.06 in question was spent on the following items.

Jambalaya - onions, sausage, chicken, rice, seasonings, rotel, green onions, cream of mushroom soup, and cooking oil.

White beans - onions, salt meat, cooking oil, green onions, and parsley.

Meat Balls & sausage in BBQ sauce

Sandwiches - Ham, - margarine, ham and bread

Variety of soft drinks

Beer

A variety of cakes

I don't remember the exact amount of everything, this is all the information I can give you. I hope this is sufficient.

This campaign was for Carl J. Chauvin, running for Councilman for District 8, in Terrebonne Parish.

Thank You
Jane Chauvin
